

Web Publisher

The Web Publisher is a website management tool that lets you customize web content for use with the CSI Web Server or a web-enabled datalogger like the CR1000. Most of the content for each website comes from an RTMC project file (*.RTMC2). In addition, the Web Publisher has display settings that allow you to show other tabs such as data browsing and network status.

See Also

Getting Started

Supported Web Browsers